BEST CHRISTMAS EVER

THINK ABOUT THIS:

Best Christmas Ever is a series designed to help students recognize that the best things about Christmas aren't the things we typically tend to remember first during the season. They're the things God did for us thousands of years ago. Though encouraging students to embrace abstract concepts like the fact that God is with them and wants to know them may be difficult for some middle schoolers to grasp, it's important to help them recognize these key elements of what Christmas is all about. These are things they can celebrate and understand as they grow in maturity and relationship with God.

Week One

Matthew 1:18b; Matthew 1:21-23

God is with us.

Week Two

Luke 2:2-20

We are all invited to get to know Jesus.

REMEMBER THIS

"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

Luke 2:14, NIV

DAILY CUES

Morning Time

Take time to celebrate the person who spends a lot of their time with your middle schooler: their Small Group Leader! Write them a card, shoot them a text, give them a call, or put together a little Christmas gift for them to show your appreciation for how they invest in and care about your kid.

Drive Time

Let each member of your family share what activity would make their Christmas the best Christmas ever! Maybe it's a Christmas movie marathon, a drive to see holiday lights, a special treat made at home, or a chance to serve someone else. Whatever it is, let each person choose their best Christmas ever activity and then, make an effort to do each one this holiday season.

Meal Time

Make an effort to bless others this holiday season. Choose a day to make Christmas cookies, cards, candy, or another holiday treat together as a family. Then, deliver them to your neighbors to spread a little Christmas cheer to those around you this week.

Bed Time

Read the Christmas story together as a family this week (Luke 2:2-20). After you read, discuss some of what you read as a family. Talk together about what this story means for you today and how you can remember it during the holiday season.
